Friday, March 25, 6PM

“How to Wear a Beard: Politics, Art, Sideshows, Circuses, and Life in General” is presented by Jennifer Miller, Circus Artist, Founder and Director of Circus Amok.

Jennifer Miller is a performance artist, circus director, and clown, and has worked as a “bearded lady” in one of the only remaining side shows in America. Miller is a lesbian performer, who lives her life with a full beard, and is often mistaken for a man, an experience she handles with the wit and intelligence that characterize her presentations.

Co-sponsored by UVM's LGBTQA Center and Free to Be GLBTA, with support from the Women's and Gender Studies Program.

Included with a regular admission to the Museum
